

Bridleway 7: From lane above Smiths Farm to lane above Ramstorland (0.92 miles)

Leave Pylemoor lane on the track down to Smith's Farm by a Bridleway fingerpost and follow the track, bearing right just past the farmhouse and then bear left to follow the track downhill.

Go through the gate and head down the field towards the double power poles. At these poles Footpath 6 goes off to your left towards Slade.

Follow straight on down the hill, over the stream, through a gate and then up the hill to a gate on the horizon. [Alternative route here: a few yards downhill from the poles a track goes to the left, follow this and cross the stream in the bottom lefthand corner of the field. Then keep going uphill, bearing to the right to the same gate on the horizon.]

Go through the gate and keep going slightly left towards a power pole and then straight on to a fingerpost sign and gate.

Follow the track down to another gate, go through the gate and over two streams then follow the track to join the Stoodleigh lane above Ramstorland.
