

Footpath 4: Brook Lane to Long Lane then over the Link Road towards Calverleigh (0.73 miles)

Leave Washfield down Brook Lane, opposite the Weeches. Passing Wynefreds on your right, this is one of the oldest houses in Washfield, and on down the lane to a field gate.

Go through the gate and go straight on keeping the hedge and then the fence on your right.

Under the trees and over a stile, follow the path then over another stile, across the bridge over the stream and through a kissing gate.

Carry on up the hill keeping the hedge on your right, cross the bridge over an old leat and through a gap in the hedge by some electricity poles and cross the field to a gate onto Long Lane.

Cross the lane and onto a driveway at Pound House after a few yards turn left through a gate and then right over a stile.

Take care crossing the A361, be patient and a gap in the traffic will happen!

Follow the track downhill past Harpridge and you will now be going into Calverleigh. Cross the water on a bridge to the right of the ford and continue up the track to join the B3221 Rackenford Road.

The Rose and Crown at Calverleigh is about quarter of a mile to the left along this road.
